TWO PIONEER RESIDENTS

Died the Past Week After Only Short Illnesses.

Died at his home two miles west of Yale, on Monday, November 28, William B. Johnson, at the age of nearly seventy years. The funeral services were held from the Menery church on Thursday, in charge of the F&AM lodge of Yale, the sermon being preached by Rev. C. D. Ellis of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Sparks furnished appropriate music. The interment was made in Elmwood cemetery with the Masonic service.

The subject of this obituary was born near Simcoe, Ont., February 30, 1830, and came to the United States about 45 years ago. He settled on the farm where he died and lived his life there with the exception of the three years spent in the war serving his country. He enlisted in 1861. For a year and a half he was confined in Libby and Andersonville prisons, and had a large and varied experience as a soldier.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson had four children, three now living, Mrs. Lemuel Brown, another daughter in Wisconsin and Levi at home.

In his earlier days deceased was a member of the Free Will Baptist church but there being no denomination of that kind near him he affiliated with no other.

The widow and children through The Expressor wish to express their gratitude to the many neighbors and friends for the kindness and attention shown deceased during his sickness and since.

Elizabeth A. Vincent was born in Prince Edward county, Ontario, Nov. 4, 1841. At the age of 21 years she was united in marriage to William Beadle at Hastings, Ont. They lived in the town of Percy for a little over two years and then moved to Michigan, taking up their residence in Speaker township November 1866. Came to Brockway township eighteen months later. May 10, 1888 Mr. Beadle died. Mrs. Beadle remained on the farm one mile north and three miles west of Yale until a short time ago when the place was sold to Henry P. Ohmer. She then took up her residence with her daughter, Mrs. John Armstrong, where she passed away suddenly on Saturday, November 29.

Seven children were born to her—Malissa, now dead; Jennie, Mrs. Ed. Hopkins; Emma, Mrs. Neil Evans; Esther, Mrs. John Armstrong; Grace, Mrs. John Thompson; Lizzie, Mrs. Robert Carson; and Wilson, the only son.

The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. A. E. Miller in the M. P. church on Wednesday, Nov. 30 at 11 o'clock a. m., and all that was mortal of a good and kind mother and an obliging neighbor was laid to rest alongside of her husband in Elmwood cemetery. Not only the children mourn their loss but the entire community.

Warren Windover, one of the oldest inhabitants of Kenosha township, died at the home of his son in Detroit, of apoplexy, on Saturday night, Nov. 26, aged 81 years. The funeral was held at the Avoca M. E. church on Tuesday at two o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. L. Clark officiating. Interment in Spring Hill cemetery. A wife and several grown-up children are left to mourn the departure of a devoted husband and kind father.

A RUMMAGE SALE.

A Christmas market and rummage sale will be held under the auspices of the Presbyterian church the week before Christmas in the basement of the church. Don't buy your Christmas gifts until you see all that will be offered at this sale. Dates and further particulars will be given next week. Watch carefully for it because you will not want to miss the opportunity of getting reasonable presents for your friends at reasonable prices.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS
The White is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve writes W. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for piles, cuts and burns for years and can recommend it to be the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a scar. Sold by Grant Holden.

CHRISTIAN WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS

As announced in last week's paper, Mrs. Fannie R. Thompson, of Ann Arbor, addressed a good-sized audience in the Disciple church last Friday evening in the interests of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions of that church. Mrs. Thompson is the State President and is thoroughly versed in home and foreign missions. She made the matter very plain and interesting to her listeners. It is surprising to note the remarkable growth of missionary organizations and the work that is being done is enormous. At home this society is endeavoring to reach the negroes who have had no advantages and schools are established in several of the southern states for their education.

Work is progressing all along this line and much good is being done.

MARY IRIS STROUT.

A coming treat in store for the lovers of the elocutionary art will be the recital in the Methodist Episcopal church by Mary Iris Strout, whose name calls up many pleasing memories, as she has entertained Yale audiences a number of times and always with immense success.

As a finished pupil in this art Miss Strout comes to us after an absence of a year or two with probably a greater charm of manner than heretofore and her evening's entertainment will be one which we shall certainly enjoy.

The date for her appearance is set for December 14th.

HUNTERS ALL HOME.

Grant Holden, J. C. Holden and Chas. Kelley arrived home from their hunting trip Friday evening last. All report a pleasant outing. This party succeeded in securing twelve fine large deer, all bucks but one. Two have been on exhibition at Gransburg & Sterner's meat market this week.

Ed and Frank Newell, Warren Roadway, of Yale, A. J. Ward and Nate Outman, of Avoca, have all returned from Newberry. This party only killed five deer.

Thos. Grimes and party of Speaker and Peck returned last week from Palms and report several deer to their credit.

THOSE WHO ARE SICK.

Mrs. E. W. Farley has been quite sick during the past week.

Mrs. Wm. Sayles has been confined to her bed with sickness during the past week.

Mrs. Mary Hennessy is sick with a heavy cold this week.

Mrs. J. B. Paisley is gaining in strength very slowly.

Mrs. Daniel Mulligan has been quite sick the past week.

Weddings of the Week.

Rev. Lester Clark united in matrimonial bonds at his home in Yale, on Wednesday, November 30, 1904, Cora Middleton and Nelson Kitley, both of Greenwood. The happy couple were accompanied by Ethel Kitley and Samuel Middleton, who acted as bridesmaid and groomsmen. Congratulations and best wishes.

Revolution Imminent.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed by Grant Holden, druggist.

CIDER MILL.

I wish to announce to the public that I am prepared to make cider on short notice. I have placed in some new machinery and can now make the best of apple butter. Give me a call.
